DROWNED IN A BARREL.—By diving into a rain-water barrel, Mrs. John Harper, aged thirty, the wife of a prominent farmer living nine miles from Cynthiana, committed suicide Sunday morning about 8 o'clock. She had been ill, and this is believed to have provoked the rash act. She stood high in the community and her death has caused widespread distress.

Mrs. Harper was a sister-in-law of Geo. Harper, of Glenkensy, and a niece of the late Wm. Shaw, of this city.

Postponed Indefinitely.

The Bourbon County Democratic Committee held a meeting Saturday and turned down a proposition from some of the candidates for county offices to call a primary election for June 25. The committee was unanimous in deferring action indefinitely, and its decision is commended generally by the Democrats of the county. Only seven candidates have made formal announcements and but three have opposition. But by the proper time the woods, no doubt, will be full of them.

Hon. W. V. Shropshire, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Representative, was present and was invited to address the committee. He said that he had always been not a Democrat, and those who said he was not, lied. He had voted for Breckinridge, who was now a Democrat, while his friend, Dick McCarty, of the committee, voted for Owens, who was now a Republican and had always been one. He denounced Mark Hanna for robbing the poor man to enrich himself, and announced himself as favorable to Blackburn for Senator, saying he was making a good salary in Washington and if sent home he could not make a living and would have to be sent to the Confederate Home at the expense of the State. At the conclusion of his speech the committee pronounced him to be the god of eloquence and more than one wanted to then and there declare him the nominee, but thought best to postpone action to give the boys in the trenches a chance to hear the "Bald Chief of the West."

RECEIVED DAILY.—You can always find the nicest of fresh vegetables at my store. C. P. COOK & CO., "Little Cook."

Narrow Escape From Fire.

Mr. Swift Champ had a narrow escape from losing his house by fire on Saturday evening. While the family were all upstairs the portiers that hang over the door between the dining room and library caught fire in some unaccountable manner, and before the fire was discovered the frame work of the door was in a blaze. Mr. Champ, by heroic efforts, succeeded in subduing the flames with several buckets of water, in the excitement forgetting his patent fire extinguisher setting in the corner of the room a few feet away. Loss about $60, covered by insurance.

It is a mystery as to how the portiers caught, as there was no one down stairs and no fire in the rooms that the portiers hung in.

FOR RENT.—Three up-stairs rooms, centrally located. Apply at 514 Main street.

SWEET POTATOES.—Leave your orders for yellow Strausburg Sweet Potatoes. WM. SAUER.

Will Die Preaching Bryan.

The State exchanges are discussing as to who is the original Bryan man in Kentucky—Tarvin or Woodson. THE NEWS will not take issue, but is willing to wager that W. T. Brooks, our popular druggist, was converted to Bryanism as sudden as the conversion of St. Paul. This clever and enthusiastic Democrat will be advocating the cause of the gentleman of Nebraska when the others are saving wood and saying nothing. You should drop in some Sunday morning and hear the eloquent gentleman. At times a person on the outside would think it was either Congressman D. C. Parrish or A. T. Forsyth talking, but upon entering you find it is the eloquent Doctor taking one of his flights.

PAINTED OR REPAIRED.—Those desiring to have their old buggies painted or repaired, call on E. J. MCKIMY & SON.

LADIES SHOES.—We have a line unsurpassed for style and beauty. FREEMAN & FREEMAN.

Napoleon Nix Dead.

Napoleon Nix, the oldest son of Mrs. Ann Nix, of this city, was found dead in bed by his wife Sunday morning at his home in Louisville, Ky. He was 59 years of age and favorably known by our citizens. "Pole," as he was known by his Parisian friends, was here only a few weeks ago visiting his aged mother, and looked the picture of health. He was of a jovial disposition and had many friends in his old boyhood home. He had been a Government storekeeper-gauger in Louisville for many years, and a Republican politician of note. His death was caused from paralysis of the heart, having on several occasions before been stricken with slight attacks of paralysis. He is survived by a wife, son and daughter. His funeral is to be held today at 2 o'clock in Louisville.

He was a member of Whittaker Post, No. 75, G. A. R.

REFRIGERATORS.—Ice costs money. The less ice you use the more money you save. The North Star Refrigerator saves ice. Can't you figure the profit to you in a North Star? Where can you get them? At J. T. Hinton's.

BARGAIN.—We are selling 1 can of corn and two cans of tomatoes for 25 cents. EDWARDS & CLARK.

A Good Fat Job.

To be a member of some of the Fiscal Court Committees has gotten to be a good fat job. In looking over the recent orders passed by the court we notice, first, that in January, 1903, there was an order passed as follows: That the Court House Committee be allowed $3 per day and not to exceed $400 for their services until the Court House is completed. So far, so good.

At the meeting of the court last week another order was passed, which reads something like this: The Court House Committee shall be allowed at the same rate paid them for the year 1903, commencing January, 1904.

You will readily see that the first order is practically rescinded, for it closed with these words, "until the Court house is completed."

It is true these gentlemen might have thought the Court House would be completed by January 1, but it looks like a little "welching" is being done, and the poor tax payers, as usual, must pay the fiddler.

We now have four members on every committee, where it used to be only three—it simply means $12 a day instead of $9.

There is some interesting reading on the books for the people who pay the taxes, and we will let them have some of it in the near future.

A Disrespectful Hobo.

On yesterday, there was a drunken and insulting legless hobo taking in the town. Whenever a passerby refused to give him money he would curse him and use the vilest of language. He carried his bottle in his pocket and such a character does not deserve to be pitied. He used the vilest of language before ladies who would be passing by and should be ordered out of town by the police. We believe in charity and willing at all times to give aid to the deserving needy but there have been several occasions of late when our citizens have been imposed on by these traveling hobos. Paris seems to be a snap for them as the officials seem to take no notice of them.

LATER.—Chief Hill landed him and he is now in the keeping of Jailor Judy.

COLORADO PHYSICIAN DIES.—Dr. W. R. Harrington, a colored physician of this city, died at his room, adjoining his office, on Seventh street, yesterday morning. He has been sick since Tuesday, and it seems that there is some mystery connected with his death, as a post mortem was to be held.

There will be preaching at the Baptist church Sunday morning and night.

A FAITHFUL MINISTER.—On Sunday Rev. Dr. E. H. Rutherford entered upon his twenty-fourth year as pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, of this city. It can be truly said that no minister has been more faithful to his charge than this much beloved gentleman. Dr. Rutherford has not only the love of his own flock, but the love and esteem of the entire community, and may his remaining days in Paris be as faithful and useful as those gone by.
